

Old Growth Forest - Hemlock Lake Area – NHAL State Forest

Take a hike with ecologists in the Hemlock Lake area of the state forest. Learn about the mixed pine forest, managing for old growth features, flora and fauna identification and visit a vernal pond.

Hike is moderate level on rolling terrain off and on a trail through the forest.

When: Sat. July 21, 2018 from 9am until noon.

Where: Meet at the Hemlock Lake parking area in Woodruff

What to bring: Dress appropriately for the outdoors, hiking boots recommended, Bug repellent, rain gear, water, snack, poem, lunch optional.

Contact: Colleen Matula 715-216-1378 or colleen.matula@wi.gov

